Part 3: EQ Insights TTT

How do you make EQ practical for managers, individuals, and educators?

EQ Insights are hands-on, ready-to-use workshops (8-hour programs can be a day or divided, online or face-to-face) – structured through personalized workbooks that blend course materials with the Brain Brief, Brain Talent, and Brain Discovery Profiles.

In this Train-the-Trainer (TTT), to get certified to use the whole Insights toolkit, you'll complete in-depth eLearning on the program, and then attend one of the regularly-scheduled live-Zoom sessions to dive deeper. As a learning & development professional, you'll be equipped with courseware (slides, facilitator's guide, sample proposal, sample workbook) and your own personalized workbook.

The EQ Insights workshops are ready-to-use courses that work beautifully in either virtual or face-to-face training. You'll have access to all three courses:

- Insights for People Management (IPM)
- Insights for Personal Development (IPD)
- Insights for Great Teaching (IGT)

IMAGINE THE WORLD WITH A BILLION PEOPLE PRACTICING EQ

Six Seconds is the global community working to increase emotional intelligence everywhere.

Transformational: Data shows that the practice of emotional intelligence increases effectiveness, wellbeing, relationships, and quality of life. So, we research and disseminate “what works” and support a network of changemakers to bring these skills into practice everywhere.

Global: Founded in 1997, Six Seconds is the first and largest organization 100% dedicated to the development of emotional intelligence. We have offices and representatives in over 25 nations and our community reaches over 200 countries and territories.

Scientific: Six Seconds, together with our partners around the world, has published 1000s of hours of curriculum (for senior leaders, employees, managers, parents, teachers, children), 350+ hours of certification training to grow world-class experts, scores of case studies (including at FedEx, Siemens, UCB at 6sec.org/cases) and dozens of papers including the ongoing State of the Heart, the world’s largest study of EQ (6sec.org/soh).

Businesses, government agencies, nonprofits, schools, and community organizations choose Six Seconds’ tools and methods because of the global relevance, strong scientific basis, and practical application.
